Quebec House Is Prorogued

QUEBEC, April 2.—(CP)—Lieutenant Governor Sir Eugene Flaherty Thursday prorogued the 12-week fourth session of Quebec's legislature since Premier Duplessis' Union Nationale government came to power in 1944. An election was expected to follow.

Date of the election in which Liberal Leader Godbout will lead the opposition against the Union Nationale party remains a secret. Speculation places it between June and late autumn.

In the assembly, Premier Duplessis was at the head of a Union Nationale group of 52 members in the Quebec National Assembly.

The opposition group headed by Mr. Godbout, there were 33 members, Rene Chouinard (Quebec), Albert Lemieux (Quebec), and three other representatives completed the representation. The Montreal-St. Louis seat remained vacant.

FLAG IS ADOPTED
In the session Premier Duplessis unexpectedly announced acceptance of Rene Chouinard's motion for adoption of a provincial flag and had chosen the fleur-de-lis emblem, formerly the symbol of the St. Jean Baptiste Society.

Lack of Funds Halts Recruiting Campaign

OTTAWA, April 2.—(CP)—Canada's recruiting campaign bogged down Thursday—for lack of money. The three services' press and radio advertising campaigns were financed through funds voted for the last fiscal year which ended Wednesday.

Provision for continuing the campaign was made in the estimate for the fiscal year which started Thursday, but parliament has not yet passed the appropriations. Until they are approved no further money is available.

As the recruiting campaign came to a temporary halt, the navy, army and air force reported favorably on enlistments in the last two or three months, since the forces began advertising.

The most enthusiastic report came from the navy. A spokesman said applications by potential recruits had strided the staff available for handling them.

"There are no figures available yet," a naval spokesman said. "All we know is that reports from all points show a marked increase in the number of applications."

OPEN HOUSE SUCCESS
He attributed part of the upsurge to the success of the "open house" campaign.

TOO MANY POUNDS IN ICEBOX

Hoarding by Housewives Tightens Butter Shortage

By GEORGE KITCHEN
OTTAWA, April 2.—(CP)—Canada is suffering from too many pounds of butter away from the icebox. That is the way a prices board official sizes up the butter situation.

"Odd though it may sound, he said, it is one of the basic reasons for the country's current butter shortage. It means, literally, that too many housewives, anticipating declines in supplies, have been putting too many pounds away against butterless days.

True, there was going to be a shortage anyway. It was bound to come, the way Canadians have been gobbling up butter since the ration was removed last June.

Added to this is the fact this normally is a period of low butter production. But the hoarding by housewives, instead of helping the situation, has only made it worse.

At the moment it looks as though the butter famine may last another three weeks. After that, supplies should increase.

Government experts who are close to the supply picture put it this way:

The country has what might be called a "butter pipeline" which is the channel by which butter goes from the cow to the consumer. In this channel, the product goes from the farm to the butter factory, from processing to storage, from there by rail to the wholesale storage and thence to the corner grocery.

To ensure normal and adequate distribution across the country, there must be 14,000,000 to 15,000,000 pounds of butter moving constantly. If, say, 1,000,000 housewives each put away a pound or two of butter the flow decreases and shortages result. Right now, says the experts, only about 10,000,000 pounds are running through the pipeline.

Estimates of the current supply position won't be available for another 10 days or so but totals covering the situation as it stands are available.

Death of Minister Is Ruled Suicide
GAYDON, Warwickshire, England, April 2.—(CP)—A verdict of "suicide while his balance of mind was disturbed" was recorded yesterday in an inquest into the death of Rev. Thomas Lamb, 65, vicar of Hurton, Durham, a village near Stratford-on-Avon, who was found drowned Tuesday.

Coast of Britain Lashed by Gales
LONDON, April 2.—(Reuters)—Gales and mountainous seas lashed the coasts of Britain early Thursday, doing damage on land and sea and delaying ships and air traffic.

SHIPPING STARTS MINUS SHIPS

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 2.—(AP)—The Lake Ontario shipping search opened yesterday minus the shipping.

Canadian tollers remained tied up at their home docks and Baltimore and Ohio spokesmen said no inquiries had been received from Canadian shippers when loading could be started.

Bracken Hits At Communism

OTTAWA, April 2.—(CP)—John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, last night lashed out at Communism and said that "in the Communist threat we are dealing with people who understand but one thing, and that is power."

"The secret means to power is therefore a strong, stable economy at home, and a strong, stable international position," he said.

Mr. Bracken in a speech on free time reported by the CBC for political broadcasts.

ACTION REQUIRED
"The time for platitudes is past," he said. "It is action that is required now."

"It is action that means that we are immediately probable, or eventually inevitable, but it does not mean that we are not now to war. And it does mean that physical strength combined with moral strength is the only road to peace."

"Politically we must be strong enough and courageous enough to make a just contribution to the defence of the nation in the present war. It may be regrettable, but the voice of a nation in today's world, is no stronger than its power."

Deposition Said Attack on Unions

Striking Printers To Seek Contracts

INDIANAPOLIS, April 2.—(AP)—The International Typographical Union (ITU) Thursday ordered its striking locals in the United States to start new negotiations for contracts.

In a bulletin labeled "instructions and advice," ITU headquarters warned that strikers' benefits would be withdrawn from locals failing to comply.

The bulletin announced ITU will "fully comply" with an injunction granted the government in federal district court last Saturday.

"In that decree, Justice Luther M. Swygert forbade ITU officers to carry out the union's 'conditions of employment,' bargaining, policy. Specifically, it prohibited discrimination against non-union printers."

The injunction, however, is temporary, hinging on the outcome of a current hearing before a National Labor Relations Board examiner.

VANCOUVER, April 2.—(CP)—Police thought it an April Fool's joke.

School Grant Regulations Released To Board Officials

Regulations governing the distribution of Alberta's recent $6,020,000 in school grants have been released to school board officials it was announced Friday.

The grants, as outlined in the provincial estimates, approved at the recent session of the legislature, are $820,000 above the figure set aside for that purpose a year ago.

REALLY CHEAPER TO BUY COOKIES

A box of cookies cost an Edmonton man $15 in police court today.

Peter Hiers, Alaska miner, was caught stealing a box of cookies from a downtown department store, March 25.

He was able to pay his fine, however.

When searched at the time of his arrest he had $66 in his pocket.

Lumber Boost Seen Likely

An increase in the price of lumber in the city was forecast by Edmonton lumber yards today.

This is necessitated by the recently announced freight rate increase, which will have to be absorbed by the consumer, lumber dealers said.

They predicted a general increase in all building materials. Biggest increase will be in materials such as hardwood flooring and asphalt shingles, which are shipped in from the east.

Some large lumber companies have already received shipments of cedar shingles and fir lumber from B.C. while other yards have only received a portion of their orders.

Increases in B.C. lumber is expected to be about $3 per thousand feet.

Boost in the retail price of material from Eastern Canada will likely be double that, one Edmonton lumber company manager said. No definite prices will be set, however, until the new freight rates go into effect.

In early time palimony, or fortune telling by the contours of the hand, was held in evidence of such men as Piliny and Aristotle.

EXCELS IN MANNISH PURSUITS

No Man Hater but Doesn't Have Time for 'Make Up'

By JACK DELONG

Dr. Charlotte Whitton, prominent Ottawa social welfare expert, has nothing against lipstick and rouge. She just "never finds time to put make-up on."

She personally shuns the new look because:

"A woman has to make the most of what the good Lord has given her. With my height (she's five feet one and one-half inches tall), I'd look like Elsie the Barden cow dressed in modern fashion."

Miss Whitton, 51, has never married.

Her 25 years of investigation into social problems may well be the answer for the prolonged spinsterhood. Miss Whitton says she "gets along with men just about as well as I do with members of my own sex."

As a matter of fact she excels in doing many things that men think they have a corner on. She's a first class carpenter and stoneworker.

"I converted an ice house into a study last summer," she proudly proclaimed.

"As a young girl in school I was put out of the domestic science class and into the manual training class with the boys," she added.

She's a good cook, nevertheless, and does all of her own housework in her Ottawa apartment.

Other traditionally masculine pursuits in which Miss Whitton fairly revels are fishing, swimming and rowing.

In her retirement office of English-fringe ancestry she laughs and "fights" with four children, two boys and two girls. She worked her way through high school and university and later helped put the other children through school.

Ten Canaries Burned As Fire Destroys Home

Ten canaries burned to death when a city home was destroyed by fire today.

The home of C. D. Fairbrother, 13244 103 street, burned to the ground in a blaze of undetermined origin.

Some furniture was saved.

Firemen used water from engine tanks in a futile attempt to save the dwelling.

Fire-fighting equipment was slightly delayed by fresh snow drifts which blocked all roads.

Members of the family were listening to the radio when the fire broke out.

A neighbor's car passing the window noticed flames and ran to warn the unlucky family.

The blaze began in a bedroom. Fire halls 2, 7 and 8 answered the call under Acting District Supervisor Harry Shea.

Leftists Campaign Skillfully in Italy

Make Use of Many Angles
In Current Election Drive

By John P. McKnight

ROME, April 2.—(AP)—In one respect at least, the Left has all the best of it in Italy's electoral campaign.

The Communist-dominated "Popular Front" skillfully has captured and made its own almost all the "good words" whose emotional overtones warm men's hearts and presumably influence their voting.

Taken for instance, the name itself of the Front Newspaper writers use "Popular Front" for brevity. Actually, the full name is "Popular Democratic Front for Liberty, Peace and Work."

In its posters, newspapers, election speeches—and doubtless in the minds of many voters—"democracy" has come to be synonymous with the system of government in vogue in the U.S.S.R. and its satellite states.

BEAT ON PUBLIC EAR
The western political method is "capitalist reaction"—at best, "so-called democracy."

In like fashion, incessant beating upon the public ear must have permeated many that west means "war" and east "peace."

So well established was the theme that Roman Catholic Premier Alcide De Gasperi and anti-Communist leaders had to walk softly around the recent Communist sponsored "Peace Rally" of 30,000 women in Rome.

It takes a good deal of ignoring, of course, to ignore the well-known facts of life under a Communist regime, but the Communists' propaganda tells the voters firmly that only a "people's government" such as they promise can guarantee "personal liberties."

The Left's skill extends even to the invention of "loaded" words for propaganda purposes.

Thus, out of the plights of ex-minister Eduardo Pretner Caprio, Vatican private untroubled and jailed for financial speculation, it made the word "Cippicene," meaning "to steal," and used it widely in campaign posters.

Similarly, its propaganda steers clear of, or soft-pedals, word liabilities.

COMMUNISM OUT
To many, they know, "Communism" is a "bad" word, fraught with unpleasant connotations; so nowhere in their publicity, nor in the names of the secret or so-called supplementary organizations which back up the front, does the word "Communism" appear.

To the Left's brilliant virtuosity in the managing of the emotional content of words, only the Vatican and its lay arm, Catholic Action, have provided effective counter.

A steady campaign rising to crescendo has endeavored to convince voters that their choice lies between "fascist" Communism and "Christian civilization," while the church's report to the Left's ultimatum of voters was, "In the voting booth, God sees you; Stalin does not."

UN Holy Land Meet Called
By NORMAN ALSTEDTER
LAKE SUCCESS, April 2.—(CP)—A special session of the United Nations General Assembly to reconsider the Palestine problem will convene April 16-18, 30 days before Britain is scheduled to terminate her Holy Land mandate.

This latest move of the UN, which had the question dropped in its lap one year ago today, was decided yesterday by a 9 to 0 vote in the Security Council followed by setting of the date by Trygve Lie, UN secretary general.

The Ukraine and Russia, which has urged immediate implementation of Palestine partition and attacked the United States proposal for a special session, abstained.

Here unanimity of the 11-member council was obtained, however, in a decision to call for a Jewish-Arab truce in the Holy Land—a call previously rejected by the combatants.

ENDORSE PROPOSAL
The council endorsed a proposal by Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, Canada's chief delegate, that it meet immediately to hear specific proposals of the United States regarding its plan for a temporary Palestinian trusteeship.

It adjourned without setting a date for another meeting on Palestine. However, Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, invited all members of the council to meet Monday in his office for informal talks on the trusteeship proposal.

The council approved the Canadian delegate's suggestion that the Jewish agency for Palestine, representing Jews of the Holy Land, and the Arab Higher Committee, representing Arabs of the stricken country, and representatives to meet at once with the council's April president, Dr. Alfonso Lopez of Colombia, to arrange a truce between the Arab and Jewish communities. Some 2,300 persons have died in Palestine fighting since partition was voted.

Big Percentage Are Alcoholics
BOSTON, April 2.—(AP)—Selden Bacon, Yale sociologist, says that 6,000,000 of 80,000,000 liquor drinkers in the United States qualify as alcoholics. Bacon, who organized the "Vale Plan" for study and treatment of alcoholism, said employment is a big factor in helping alcoholics recover self-discipline.

John D. Rockefeller, who made millions out of oil, started as an assistant bookkeeper in a commission house.

PARIS 'RED' PAPER PROVIDES 'SENSATION'

PARIS, April 2.—(AP)—The Communist-line newspaper Ce Soir came up Thursday with what some Parisians probably regarded as a great sensation: Ce Soir carried an eight-column banner saying: "Colossal atomic espionage 'affair' fabricated by the American military against the leaders of the Wallace party."

The paper's story, carrying a New York dateline, said charges of high treason are being prepared against "six very important officials of the state and treasury departments" in the United States, and "12 principal leaders of Henry Wallace's party."

The article said the officials were "immediate collaborators of Franklin D. Roosevelt" and that they would be accused of delivering secrets of the atomic bomb to the Russians.

BELLE OF THE YUKON MARRIED IN STATES

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 2.—(CP)—Klondike Kate, the belle of the Yukon, became Mrs. W. L. van Duren Thursday.

In the courteous office of Justice of the Peace Fred O. Bowman, 68-year-old Kate, the one-time toast of the soundrogers, smiled happily as she and Van Duren, 36, accountant, exchanged vows.

John Matson, a prospector, fell in love with Kate when she was a dance hall girl at Dawson City in 1901 and married her in 1922. He died on a Yukon Trail in 1940 while hiking out for a reunion with Kate. Her first husband was Floyd Warner who Kate said, was "a handsome blonde cowboy."

Appeal May Block New Freight Rates Going Into Effect

OTTAWA, April 2.—(CP)—It is expected the general 25-per-cent increase granted railways on their freight rates this week may be more than a fortnight in going into effect and informed quarters expect that by that time an appeal by the provinces may forestall the move.

Speculation is that before the railways can prepare their new schedules, the governments of seven provinces opposing the increase will launch a move to have the decision of the board of railway commissioners set aside.

Violence Flares In Italy Election

By FRANK BRUTTO

ROME, April 2.—(AP)—A Sicilian labor leader was machine-gunned to death today and two persons wounded as violence broke out again in the midst of Italy's election campaign.

Dispatches from Palermo, Sicily, said Colosimo Cangialini, 36, secretary of the labor federation at Camptorale in Eastern Sicily was shot and killed at midnight.

Two of his companions also were caught in the burst of machine-gun fire. The unknown assailants escaped.

A country-wide strike has been ordered for next Thursday in protest against the disappearance of another Sicilian labor leader and observers feared the shooting might bring further Communist reaction.

Politicians swung into southern Italy today where voters are expected to weigh heavily in the April 18 elections.

'Purge' Group Named For U.K. Civil Service

LONDON, April 2.—(Reuters)—The government Thursday named the three members of the "purge" committee of former high civil servants who are to advise ministers about the removal of Communists, Fascists and "fellow travellers" working in government security departments.

The men are Sir Thomas Gurney, 65, former director-general of the Post Office who will be chairman; Sir Maurice Holmes, 63, former permanent secretary to the ministry of education; and Sir Frederick Leggett, 64, former deputy secretary at the ministry of labor, well-known for his successes as a "peon-maker" in industrial disputes.

WILL BE TRANSFERRED
Their appointment followed an announcement by Prime Minister Attlee March 13 that steps would be taken to ensure that no Communist or Fascist, or anyone associated with their organizations, was employed on work vital to the security of the state.

Civil servants in these categories normally will be transferred to another post. They may be dismissed if there is no suitable alternative job available.

If a transfer or dismissal is challenged by a civil servant, the committee will make an impartial inquiry and will advise ministers who will not be obliged to act on that advice.

Three Billions More Needed for Defence

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(AP)—President Truman advised Congress Thursday that an additional $3,000,000,000 will be asked for national defense.

Truman made this known in a letter to House Speaker Joseph Martin (Rep. Mass.). The president also asked that the treasury department be authorized immediately to contract for $375,000,000 to build up stocks of strategic and critical materials.

The president said the request for the extra $3,000,000,000 for defense will be sent to Congress shortly. It will be on top of the $11,000,000,000 already requested for national defense for the 12 months beginning next July 1.

'Duke' Scodellaro's Colorful Show All But Trips Flyers

WCHL Champs Push Smokies To Brink of Elimination

KRELLER GOT FIRST
Kreller rang the bell in the first period on a thrust with Freddy Smith. A short lay-up pass shook him loose for a drive from close range at the 'Duke'.

The first try was blocked. But the flyer pivoted with the task to shove the rubber under the trail while into the cage.

Merik's came 55 seconds after the last period got underway and broke a 1-1 tie. Andy Clementovok forced a pass into the goal mouth where Scodellaro and Merik were fencing with their sticks.

Afterwards the Coal Branch cutie said he tipped the puck into the net. From the press box it appeared that it went off his stick. Regardless, it proved to be the Jack-not marker. And that was not anything where another capacity crowd of 4,500 was coming.

'Zeke' Clements, onetime Saskatoon junior broke through the defense of the starry Rollins for the lone trail goal. The light on this one flashed in the 13th minute of play in the second stanza. Hefy Bud McPherson on the other hand just been thumbed for a sticky sticking when Clements pulled the rebound off a drive by Frank Trull. All in all it was a tough night for the smokies who, in fact, were scoring averages with an eye to next season's contract.

The action was alternately aloof and scrappy and brilliant lines. Not-

Third Period: Edmonton, Merik (Clements) 1-1. Penalties—Merik.

Because of the spirited attempt of the Smoke Eaters to bring off a comeback, the game was ruled by an eyewitness the Smelter City crew in all but down for the count in this best-of-seven series.

It was 6:13 on Trail last Saturday and Flyers again prevailed at 4-1. So far the Smoke Eaters have nothing to show for their series.

They were away in the third game and the verdict might easily have swung the other way. It didn't, and that's why the Trail gang isn't doing much investigating of what Winnipeg Flyers have in the way of a club.

The western final more than shapes up as Flyer vs. Flyer.

Barons in Voodoo Acts During Winning Streak

Imagine Bobby Carre wearing the same brown tie to the rink through 20 games. Or Julian Sawchuk and Lew Stewick religiously going through a pre-game ceremony bestowing a kiss on each other's bald spot.

These and more superstitious practices were gone through while the Cleveland Barons of the American Hockey League recently swept through 30 games without defeat.

Voodoo helped, the boys thought.

De Marco insisted on buying his pre-game steak at the same deli house. Netminder Rudy Wenzel, including Calgary's (where's Calgary?) Eddie Wares—made a point of stepping on the ice only when Fry Buller directly preceded him.

It was left for Herd Butler to practice the most colorful superstition of all. He hung up in the dressing room—and left there—a pair of hand-painted green-and-white shorts, a gift from a fan. The shorts were inscribed with the words "The Fox".

WARES WANTS NO PART

Of course a number of the Barons, including Calgary's (where's Calgary?) Eddie Wares—made a point of stepping on the ice only when Fry Buller directly preceded him.

The only thing I quit doing during the season was wearing those shorts with my teeth. Wares told a Cleveland writer.

Accompanying the Toronto Skating Club stars will be Don Tobin, a young member of the Ottawa Manito Skating Club, who was runner-up in the Canadian junior men's singles at the Canadian championships here last week.

Ice Too Big For Flyers

Stan Mohr

Bad MacKenzie got off a good one when it was over. "This ice is too big for us," the young Flyer spoke artist laughed. "We'd better head back to Trail."

Then he added, in an undertone: "I didn't know which way they were going." At that he appeared to be having more trouble than usual keeping track of Archie Scott, Secco, Nicol, the veteran Cronie and the rest of the aroused Smoke Eaters.

Certainly the gang from the Kootenays surprised. It was expected Smokies would roll over and play dead on the big Arena sheet. Instead they roared into Flyers from the drop of the puck and battled tooth and claw until the klaxon blatted out the final.

At Rollins was good... very good. He had to be the way the visitors poured it on, particularly in the first 40 minutes.

The benediction or whatever it was Ab Cronie felt his gamecocks was beginning to wear off in the third period. Nevertheless Rollins had to work overtime, particularly on Turk's Hazing 33-footer and Scott's clean breakaway in along the left line in the first 40 minutes.

Cronie Stays in There

Cronie, a quiet center in the heat of battle visited Flyers' bench after another game, a social call. "Where," he wanted to know, "can we get a good skate sharpening job done?"

He's looking ahead to Saturday. The Smokies say they aren't through. On almost the first task of the game Jimmy Smith was the one thing they'll likely find a very different club in the fourth game.

They should have more sparkle, more early kick than in Thursday's near miss on the part of Trail. Andy Clenchok seemed to have the right slant. "We had things too much our own way in the first two games. Maybe this will work us up."

The locals got away almost to be outscored 128 in the first 20 minutes. Smoke Eaters played it a lot more rugged than in the previous game. On almost the first task of the game Jimmy Anderson flattened Mory Hirst.

Right there he set a standard for his mates. Of course the exchanges faded at any time to appreciate a Flyer-Clench encounter.

Trail moved in much smoother fashion into the Arena and within the aisles were kept pretty well clear. At the front end of the arena the pattern was more evidence of a game in progress. As well as a public address system aimed at the lead of the building.

This was all to the good.

Harvey (Pip) Young, Flyer rearguard, may have a cracked rib. At 11:30 he was taken Friday to decide. Trail's Archie Scott came out of the battle with a bruised wrist. There's talk that Dave (Sweeney) Schmitz wants Scott at Lethbridge next season. Ditto Nicol. He could do worse.

Predy Smith and Bill Maher were the pick of the Flyers... after Bellows of course. For certain of course the moment came when Referee "Windy" Lyndine sat down hard in the north end. It was all of a three-point landing.

Wendy H. McKea, Sammy Faba, Roy Glover, Paul Platz and the balance of the Winnipeg club will be tough to knock off. Those Allan Cup finals are really in sight now.

BOSTON COURT FREES KING CLANCY, HAYES

BOSTON, April 2. (CP)—Two National Hockey League officials, Frank (King) Clancy and George Hayes, Thursday were acquitted of charges filed by a spectator "roughed up" after Tuesday night's turbulent Boston Bruins-Toronto Maple Leafs Stanley Cup "p" off game at Boston Garden.

Although King Clancy, Judge Charles L. Carr told the hockey referee, "I am absolutely certain you are not telling the truth."

The complainant was Edward P. Shallow, five-foot three-inch Boston housing authority employee who testified that he was dragged into the official's dressing room after the game.

Shallow, a 46-year-old, said his eyes were torn from his face and he was forced to the floor and then thrown out of the room.

Clancy stated that he did not know how Shallow got into the room, but that no one touched him.

Judge Carr said Clancy's nervousness was not convincing him the referee was not telling the "whole truth," but that he did not think the assault charge had been proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

Clancy and Hayes had both pleaded innocent to the charges and claimed that Shallow was a madman who had been driven by a madman.

Fight Purge Urged to Save Boxers' Lives

By VIC MORRIS, JR.

TORONTO, April 2. (CP)—Lou (Mr. Boxing) Sullivan of New York urged a cleanup of present-day boxing legislation which allows inexperienced managers and trainers to match fighters in "death battles."

Sullivan, who has operated a gymnasium in the heart of New York for 31 years, says "boxing laws and regulations are of no use if they are made by people who don't know what they are doing."

In an interview with Doug (Windsor Star) Vaughan, Sullivan suggests that boxing commissions throughout Canada and the United States should invite 25 men, who know the fight game from top to bottom, to their meetings.

"They won't be college men. Maybe they'll be older, but I'll guarantee they'll come up with at least one sound suggestion that will save a kid's life."

Lou has another objection which he lays in the lap of the boxing legislators. He says:

"Can you name another sport where you have to pay a price of a license to set yourself up in business to gamble with money?"

BOASTS CLEAN SHEET

Sullivan, who boasts he has never lost a fight, says his gymnasium is an ambulance.

He says he has trained 100 champions and has won 100 titles in at least two years' duration.

"If after two years the guy is still a champion, he's a champion. When it comes to managers, they are the trainers first."

Harry (Sarnia Observer) Tompkins put himself out by saying he was going to call the west to win over the east in the Allan Cup final.

All's Calm as Bostonians Tip Leafs to Stay in Race

BOSTON, April 2. (CP)—Displaying complete reversal of form, Boston Bruins rallied to defeat Toronto Maple Leafs 2-1 for the first time in their four National Hockey League Stanley Cup playoff starts Thursday night before a packed 15,000 crowd at Boston Garden.

Young Johnny Pearson started Bruins through the fast but orderly action with a pair of goals.

With 70-second tip, twice the usual detail, on hand, spectators were kept under a firm check and on the ice referee Frank (King) Budyk made sure that the order that he imposed only four minor penalties, two against each team.

With their backs to the wall, Bruins got away to a 2-1 lead in the second period when a furious attack, but Bruins found in three six seconds of their climb lead and force the series into a fifth game at Toronto Saturday night.

BRUINS RALLY

Bruins rallied immediately and kept a five-man attack going until the Montreal-born Pearson, called Paul Kelly's rebound during the eighth minute.

Pearson's winning counter was a blistering 20-footer. Then Billy Budyk called down to the middle lane, with his wings on each side, and blasted in a 25-foot goal without assistance.

With a minute and 16 seconds left, Maple Leafs pulled out their goalie and threw six forwards into a furious attack, but Bruins found in three six seconds of their climb lead and force the series into a fifth game at Toronto Saturday night.

Grant Warwick passed out from behind for Toronto net and goalie.

OTT Sees Good Chance For Swatting Giants

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 2. (AP)—Mel Ott has about made up his mind on a power-laden starting lineup for New York Giants.

Moreover, given support by the hurling corps, Manager Ott sees his chances with a good chance to win it all.

Of things he'll be in the cleanup spot.

Second base and leadoff batter will probably be Billy Huggins.

French Flattens Peter Nuthall In Boxing Upset

Scores First-Round Knockout; Edmonton Captures Ten Titles

By Bert Greer

Hit 'em on the right apt and they're bound to fall!

That seemed to be Eddie French's philosophy as he stepped into the ring Thursday night against rugged Pete Nuthall, who hails from Jasper Place, in the 175-pound division final in the provincial championships at HMCS Nonsuch.

French scored the surprise of the night when he ducked Pete's devastating blows and planted a couple of his own hay-makers on Nuthall's chin for the only clean knock-out on the card.

The first was a right and French managed to reach his feet at the count of nine. The second came from the port side and Pete went down like an anvil, the back of his head hitting the canvas with a thump. He was still dazed some time after the bout, which ended in the first of the main event.

It was a well-balanced card, with four technical knockout and three full decisions, and a TKO by French made an outstanding showing by taking the 1948 title.

BOALD CARD

The boxers who stood out like shining lights were Gerald Dahms of Edmonton, who won a TKO over Sloan, Dahms was a two-fisted, aggressive fighter who pummeled L.L. Vink of Calgary into a gory TKO decision, and a TKO by Southerner injured his left hand.

He was out of the ring for a while and stood up to his more rugged adversary on numerous occasions.

Sloan, as well as a cat, put Edmonton's Bob Bacon to ride the punches without the storm, but he didn't appear to be a match for the Edmonton finish after the second round.

A GRAND GU

Reddin ran up against a game guy in Don Martin of Edmonton. Three of Reddin's punches caught Martin in the jaw and he went down three times for short counts in the second. In the third Don played an overhead right on Reddin's jaw and he was out.

Reddin wasn't hurt, but his Marjion was willing to go on, but as he was in the ring, the referee had to stop the fight.

Johnny Pahara of Lethbridge proved he was a tougher fighter than L.L. Bramwell of Calgary. They heads collided in an early exchange in the first round, opening a wide cut to the side of Pahara's head.

Bramwell and his seconds decided to call it quits at the end of the round.

The program was run off in clock-like precision and the referees were particularly careful of safety-guarding the health of the fighters. They stepped in fast to stop a bout when it was obviously too one-sided.

Deep in the Resin

Butt Court Sicker, who lost a close decision to Laurie MacLean, is quite a distance runner down Cardston way. "I'm the best runner on the reserve," he admitted in his dressing room. "As a matter of fact, I can run a mile in 10 minutes." He said he has a job to do about 10 or 15 miles away. I prefer to run than take a saddle-bag.

He didn't do much running last night against MacLean. A storm.

CBC Speaker Raps Democracy's Lethargy

Attitude of Russia in bringing things to a point is one of the best things that has happened, said Stan Ross, CBC radio commentator, in a speech at South Edmonton Veterans Volunteer Reserve third annual reunion held in Scona assembly hall Thursday.

Criticizing attitude of the democracies he stated that things have gone from bad to worse because people have been "passing the buck."

"We did not back up the UN delegates enough," he said. "The Indonesian situation was passed up, the Greek situation was passed up. We in democracies couldn't make much of our minds to do something constructive."

Urge Farmers File Returns

Farmers have been urged to file income tax returns before April 30.

Action was taken by Alberta Federation of Agriculture after explanation of "net worth" procedure by Dr. J. J. McCann, minister of national revenue.

Farmers who report income on basis of cash actually received and payed out will not be required to fill out the net worth statement, said McCann.

Income reported on accrual or inventory basis will require the net worth statement.

G. W. Northfield, Edmonton income tax director, said today farmers are allowed to use the three year moving average still without effect on use of the net worth statement.

The three year average will not be effective until tax returns for 1946 are in.

Announcement of "net worth" procedure was received with favor and relief, said Roy C. Macfar, president of the AFA.

Leduc Oil Field Expands

Area of potential two-zone production in the Leduc field was greatly increased on Thursday when Globe-Leduc West No. 7 had a successful test in D2 zone.

This well is two miles west of the nearest D2 producer and almost doubles the potential D2 production area.

Globe-Leduc West No. 7 got oil in D2 zone last week. It was decided to drill on to the lower zone to test for oil rather than take immediate production from D2 zone. Previous wells drilled in the area, Globe-Leduc West No. 1 and Imperial Leduc No. 35, are both D2 zone producers.

The latest success gives estimates of the field reserves another boost. Latest official estimate of 100,000 barrels was made prior to the recent southward and western expansions.

One-Cup Coffee Maker Boon to Bachelor Girl

By Bea Thrifty

Oh to be someone warm hot that April's here! This one-cup coffee maker is playing its part in making the morning a little bit sunnier—flowers blooming, birds singing—or at least some indication that spring is just around the corner.

Coffee for one can be made by using the new one-cup coffee maker. This handy little device is measured into the paper filter which fits into a standard container. When the boiling water is poured in, it filters through the coffee into the container below.

No fuss with coffee grounds. These are disposed of along with the paper filter which lifts out of the container easily.

This effort is wonderful for the girl who lives alone and likes to make coffee for one for $17.95.

Entertaining hostesses are busy with plans for spring entertaining. For a pretty-as-a-picture dinner table use pale ecru linen or white linen cut-work place mats rather than an all-over cloth.

Cleaning polish of your dining table, the delicate pattern of your best china and the richness of your silver show to advantage.

These mats in sets of six or eight for $14.95 and up.

Now that coconut is back on the market and selling for 32¢ a pound, I'm having a delightful time thinking in my mind how to use it.

Try toast squares with apricot marmalade, with coconut and brown for a few seconds until the jam is hot and bubbly and the coconut is a delicate golden brown.

This is another of my tea-time favorites.

Last time I prepared the coconut cake I had to burn my hand on the oven—while all leads up to my telling and strain. They come in a padded oven mitts selling for $1.95. Once you use them you never be without them.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Men Share Problems In Smooth-Running Homes

Beams of advice are given to women about how to make a happy home. The sole responsibility for keeping the sun shining on the hearthstone is laid upon the wife, and when anything goes wrong and domestic machinery slips a cog, and ceases to function without a hitch, she is the one who is blamed.

In season and out of season, wives are urged to be diligent in making their families comfortable to keep themselves young and pretty; to be tactful in dealing with their husbands; to be gay and bright, and chatty and entertaining in order to make their homes attractive to their husbands and children.

So old is the entire feminine on the idea that the wife of the family is in the wilds and mother's hands that millions of women, who have been doing it for centuries, have been trying to put practice all of the provisions of the schedule of making a happy home.

Yet, cynically enough, in some of their most ardent efforts, these women are never the less, Heaven they long and strive for smiles that are pressed over by domestically minded men.

Ford White-Collar Workers to Unionize

EDMONTON, April 2.—(CP)—A drive to unionize 30,000 Ford Motor Company white-collar workers launched Thursday by the United Automobile Workers (UAW).

The union move was initiated Wednesday by union delegates attending a two-day party.

Speakers at the closing session included Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, and Earl Browder, secretary-treasurer.

The union's contract with the company now covers approximately 30,000 production workers, white-collar supervisors and technical employees are not included.

Uranium Search Set for Colorado

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(AP)—A five-year search for uranium in Colorado will be drilled this summer in search for uranium deposits. Uranium is used in the making of atomic energy, including bombs.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced Thursday that the land has been reserved for its use to the interior department.

Attempted Striker Dispersed

EDMONTON, April 2.—(AP)—Viewers of the police broke up an attempted demonstration of unemployed strikers of the city of Edmonton, late Sunday.

Police said the demonstrators were dispersed without violence. Three persons were arrested.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Superiority Feeling Checks Inferior One

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

One of the disappointments for parents to bear is to see their child unresponsive to other children. It isn't enough to blame the child, and then wonder why he doesn't help so he can make and keep friends.

Mrs. L.M. says her nine-year-old did not get along with anyone. Trying him out with play with other children, or questioning him as to the reason other boys didn't want to play with him, did not good. It only increased his misery.

CAME TO CONCLUSION

Finally, she writes, "we came to the conclusion that one reason was that he felt inferior. The teacher said that he was above average in intelligence, but he acted like the class clown. He couldn't get the attention of other children except by acting silly."

"We felt that if he could be better than average at some one thing, he could gain confidence."

Up to this time he wouldn't even try to do anything without being asked to do it. We coached and coached until he could swim better than the average. Finally, he won a minor diving contest. At last he felt that he was better than the other boys in at least one thing.

From then on he didn't mind giving credit to others for what he could do. He did not mind trying to do things as well as the other boys. It was a great relief to all of us.

TAXIMAN TAKES HIS OWN COAT FOR PAYMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—(AP)—Two fares boarded E. G. Moore's taxi cab today to find out what he had just been evicted, had no money and would give him his choice of any of the clothes they were carrying in two handbags for a ride to an address they had given.

Moore obliged and chose a handsome coat. When the fares and departed, Moore almost jumped out of his cab. The coat was his own. It had been stolen from a cleaning and pressing shop in which he owned.

Later Moore pointed out a ride to an address they had given. The police arrested them.

But Moore claimed he still was out the $2 fare.

Former Air Base Split Four Ways

OTTAWA, April 2.—(CP)—Van-couver's Sea Island air base, used as an RCAF operating station during the second world war, is being split into four ways for the construction of Boeing aircraft.

has been split four different ways with no intention of it being regrouped for aircraft construction, a government source said Thursday.

Some landing strips and airport buildings have been returned to the city of Vancouver at the request of its board of control.

Another section, including No. 1 Boeing plant building has been turned over and is being occupied by the Canadian Army.

Certain areas owned by the Dominion government have been leased to the Queen's Charlotte Air Lines, while No. 2 Boeing building and adjacent area has been taken over by the Trans-Canada Air Lines.

The government source did not believe there would be any "side interests" seeking the reopening of the Sea Island airport for the manufacture of aircraft.

Chile May Outlaw Communist Party

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 2.—(AP)—President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla yesterday called an extraordinary session of the congress to discuss the outlawing of the Communist party in Chile.

It is surprising what a child can do when he is encouraged. We praised his every effort, even when he failed. He is not envious of the boys who are better than he. He has better relations with children.

This is good, sound advice. Even if all a child can do is to balance himself on his hand, or turn somersaults, or do any simple trick, it gives him a feeling of superiority that overcomes his natural feelings of inferiority.

Supposed Plane Wing Turns Out To Be Only Large Rock

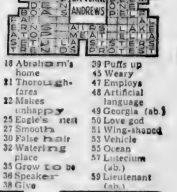

MISSOURI, April 2 (AP).—Searchers have found what a supposed plane wing, sighted near the Cape Girardeau, Mo., in the Vanderburg 31st Corps area, was only a large rock. A sleeping car porter Wednesday reported seeing the "wing," starting a search by provincial police and G.I. workers. With the sun on it, the rock showed a remarkable resemblance to a plane wing. An ECAC photo-reconnaissance plane, with nine aboard, has been missing in the general vicinity since last Oct. 18. Laurette is 19 miles east of there.
